A Small School with a Big Heart

Message from Mrs. Gray:

We had a super first week back at school. The children returned full of enthusiasm for their new topics. Keep checking book bags as later this week our curriculum newsletters will be distributed, detailing the children's learning this term and providing suggestions for how you can support at home.

On Friday afternoons, Y1 – 6 pupils attend Golden Time Clubs as a reward for their good behaviour during the week. One of our clubs is a writing club. Bea, Freddie and Charlotte attend and have written a fantastic poem inspired by the snowy weather last half term. You can read it on the back page of this week's newsletter. I'm sure that you'll be impressed!

Summer Term Visits

Staff have arranged visits to link with this term's topics. A trip to Chester Zoo on Wednesday May 9th has been organised for Key Stage 1 children. Key Stage 2 pupils will be visiting the Tropical Butterfly House, Sheffield, on Monday May 21st. Letters will be sent with further details shortly.

Choir Update

Unfortunately due to it being the May Day weekend, we do not have enough choir members to attend Bullhouse Chapel's Flower Festival on Sunday 6th May. Thank-you to those of you who had offered to attend. Hopefully we will be able to participate in a future event.

A Small School with a Big Heart

Here comes the snow

Icy white ballerinas twirl gracefully to the frozen concrete stage,
Dancing joyfully to the rhythm of the children's footsteps,
Until tiredly they fall to sleep into a thick fluffy blanket.

Excited, cold children skip happily towards the frosty playground
below,
Cheekily enjoying hide and seek, covering everything in sight.

Freezing, determined soldiers march furiously through the bleak battlefield,

Ploughing angrily onwards towards the spiky, green monsters,
which rise from the crumbling soil,

Triumphantly defeating the cowardly creatures below with their powerful, icy bullets,

Conquering the enemy with a deathly, white cloak.

By Charlotte, Freddie and Bea.
